DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-32, drawn to a method of manufacturing a sensor, classified in class 156, subclass 89.11.
 - II. Claim 33, drawn to a sensor, classified in class 204, subclass 424.
 - III. Claims 34 and 35, drawn to method of using a sensor, classified in class 205, subclass 784.5.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case because the product does not appear to be bound by the particular method of the process (see claim 33), the product can be made by individually sintering the various components before assembly.
3. Inventions III and II are related as process and apparatus for its practice. The inventions are distinct if it can be shown that either: (1) the process as claimed can be practiced by another materially different apparatus or by hand, or (2) the apparatus as claimed can be used to practice another and materially different process. (MPEP § 806.05(e)). In this case the process of sensing can be performed with a sensor having a zirconia body that does not have alumina intermixed within.

4. Inventions I and III are related as process of making and process of using the product.

The use as claimed cannot be practiced with a materially different product. Since the product is not allowable, restriction is proper between said method of making and method of using. The product claim will be examined along with the elected invention (MPEP § 806.05(i)).

5. With respect to the final sentence of the preceding paragraph about the product being examined with either process of making or the process of using, this sentence does not appear to apply in the instant situation because the examiner has already shown distinction between all three inventions (see 37 CFR 1.141).

6. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

7. A telephone call was made to Vincent Cichosz on 7-12-2002 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

8. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
